

CAMBIUM
PLANT SCIENCES

YOUR CAREER IN CANNABIS STARTS HERE

Dear Neighbours,

In April, The Supreme Cannabis Company, Inc. launched Cambium Plant Sciences with a $14 million investment into Goderich, Ontario. Supreme Cannabis is the trusted parent company of well-known 7ACRES, located in Kincardine, Ontario.

Cambium Plant Sciences is leading the agricultural revolution of cannabis genetics, redefining consumer experiences and the economics of plant genetics across the global cannabis industry. Soon to operate from a state-of-the-art, 34,000 sqft research and development facility, Cambium is developing genetics that benefit domestic and global cultivation and manufacturing partners.

We are excited to become a long-term partner in your community. To learn more about our career opportunities, visit:
